

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN OR VICINITY

✓ CALIFORNIA

Amador

Volcano (Main and National Streets)

bp

INDEX NUMBER

MONUMENT

HABS

CAL, 3. Volc, 1-

St. George Hotel

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

Cal 1285

History - At the peak of Volcano's mining activities the Eureka HotelPUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS

was a popular hostelry. Burned in 1853.

PUBLISHED
DRAWINGSThe name changed with successive ownerships to the Empire and St. George Hotel, the latter name continuing to the present.Description - This handsome 3-story brick hostelry with its continuous 2nd and 3rd story balconies supported by colonnettes on

P 52-1

HABS

(over)

each floor, and wooden balustrades with turned spindles, has French doors opening onto verandas, hip roof, and other distinctive features. This charming and imposing hostelry is in excellent condition today.

References - Weston, Mother Lode Album, 1948, pp. 118-119.
Geologic Guidebook, 1948, p. 137.

Author of Card - H. E. Rensch, Historian, 2225 W. Capitol Ave., West Sacramento, California, July 1961.